

Rebound

Words and music: Rob Holt

*Pinstripes and city lights, better go you'll miss your flight tonight, tonight what was it you forgot, when the turbulence stops it will be, alright, it'll be alright not a sound in sight, not tonight an unusual thought, far from the ground give it all that you've got, watch this sound.....rebound cant seem to make it stop, for sure but maybe not so new, so bright what was it I forgot, crash-bars sea stars and mountain tops not a lot, of time, but tonight, that's fine tonight, that's fine, that's fine what happens next we'll see, because your next to me it'll be, alright what was it we forgot, wind on the water makes waves on the top not a lot, of time, tonight, that's fine that's fine
an unusual thought, far from the ground
